HUNTERS LICENSES

STATE OF

RHODE ISLAND

D. OF D.
MAY 20 1909

State of Rhode Island

SK44-5
AS 1909

The attention of the public is called to the following abstracts from the Act entitled: An Act to Require and Provide for the Registration of Hunters, passed at the January session of the General Assembly 1909.

No person shall hunt, pursue, take or kill any wild bird or animal, in this state, without having first obtained a license as hereinafter provided.

The possession of such license shall not affect in any way the provisions of the law relating to trespass, nor authorize the killing of wild birds or animals contrary to laws now in force or hereafter enacted, nor shall it confer any privilege not enjoyed prior to the passage of this act.

Every person holding such license shall have same in his possession while hunting, and shall present same for inspection to any person demanding same. Failure to present license shall make person liable to same penalty as if he were hunting without license. Licenses are not transferable, and expire on the 31st day of December.

Licenses may be obtained from the town or city clerks, in each town or city, upon payment of the license fee with 15c. for registration.

LICENSE FEES: Every bona fide resident of the state, who is a citizen of the United States, $1.00. Every non-resident of the state, who is a citizen of the United States, $10.00. Every unnaturalized foreign born person $15.00

EXCEPTIONS: Every bona fide resident of this state, or his immediate family, may hunt (such birds or animals as may legally be killed) on land owned or leased by him and on which he is actually domiciled, and which land is used for agricultural purposes and not for club shooting, without such license.

Any non-resident, who is a citizen of the United States, and who owns real estate in Rhode Island assessed for taxation at $500.00;
